From the President,

Welcome to new members: Ian McKenzie, Marina Taylor, Sonya Clarke, Jaime Clarke, Robert Wynton, Ann Rogan, Lenore Thompson, and Patty Reid (making 194 MACS members).

The next big MACS event will be the Open Easter Exhibition over the Easter weekend. I hope you have all submitted your artworks for the event and a chance for the $6000 prize pool as the closing date for entries was 28 February. We have received plenty of entries and we look forward to another great show, and do put your name on the Roster to be part of making this year's exhibition another great success.

I thank the many Narooma businesses and individuals who are sponsoring this 27th Easter Art Exhibition.

We usually have a raffle during the exhibition, however this year we are selling raffle tickets before the event at the Narooma Visitor Information Centre, call in and buy a few, as the quality of the five prizes is exceptional, including a number of different boat trips kindly donated by the various Narooma boat owners.

On MACS website we have now introduced galleries of work by MACS artists.

Currently we are featuring two retrospective exhibitions for Robyn Woodward and Margaret Moran, displayed in a 3D gallery walk through format.

These galleries are getting a lot of 'views' so I invite other MACS artists to exhibit their work (free) in this online gallery.

The other great news is that the new kiln will be delivered in early March, and we look forward to starting ceramic workshops in the near future.

*Colin Berry
President*
